There is, as the American Organ says, a power behind them which they cannot control. The day of American triumph is indeed breaking, and all around, East, West, North, and South, the hearts of the people are luminous with its loyeous light.

We have two brief questions for those Democrats who enlogise the repeal of the Missouri compromise. First, didnot the Democratic party in their national convention of 1852 solemnly pledge themselves never to give the least countenance to the agistation of alavery under any circumstances? Secondly, did any human being think or dream in the following year that the Missouri compromise could be repealed by Congress without the agistation of lavery?

It is very evident that Col. Fremont, whom some call a Catholic and others a Procession. The natural inference is that most of the United States of the Congress and an alternation by the cast of the Congress with a natural inference in the theory of the Missouri compromise could be repealed by Congress without the agitation of lavery?

Fatel and Horrible Accident by Camphene.—A most deplorable casualty occurred in one of the negro quarters on the farm of Dr. Anthony of Bookkin, Smithfield, in lele of Wight county, on Sunday night last, by which two women and two children were burned to death, and three children so badly burned that they are not expected to recover. This and catastrophe was caused by one of the women while in the act of pouring camphene from a jug into a lamp, the wick of which was lighted. The women were exceedingly valuable and Dr. Boykin would have refused $1000 for each of them.

They were the mothers of the children who suffered with them. One was in bed at the tuna with a new born infant. Mother and babe both fell a sacrifice to the flames.

This is the way, it seems, they intent to put down br. Maclay. A few months ago be was worthy of all they could give him in place and honors. Then he was using his influence to promote their ends. Now he is in his dotage, for now he is exposing to the light of day that which cannot bear the light. We think the public will say that such a taunt is equally false, absurd, and cruel. We think the same public will say, as they come to understand it all, that such a scheme of tampering with the Word of God, and abusing the credulty of his people, richly entitles itself to derision and contempt.
